

#RealNewForest

Do commoners have to pay to graze animals on the Forest?

Marking fees are payments made on each animal turned out onto the Forest for the present year. They are set by the Verderers and help towards the agisters' (q.v.) salaries. No animal over 6 months age is allowed to be turned out on the Forest before the marking fee is paid and the animal marked by the agister.

©realnewforest2019